Divine Wind

Programme section: Voices Main Programme

Director(s): Merzak Allouache

Prod. Countries: Algeria, France, Qatar, Lebanon

Prod. Year: 2018

Length: 95

Genre: Fiction

Company: Les Asphofilms, Baya Films

Contact: Bahia Allouache

Email: lesasphofilms@yahoo.fr

Phone: +33 62 5301443

Logline: An inexperienced young jihadi grapples with doubts while awaiting an attack on an oil refinery in the Algerian desert. His unbending partner for the attack – she is determined to die a martyr – makes every effort to keep him on board. This black-and-white drama full of contrasts tackles existential questions in an explosive situation.

La secta del gatillo

International premiere

Programme section: Signatures

Director(s): José Celestino Campusano

Prod. Countries: Argentina

Prod. Year: 2018

Length: 59

Genre: Fiction

Company: Cinebruto

Contact: Paulina Portela

Email: paulina@companiadcine.com

Phone: 54911 34002718

Logline: In this VR project by José Campusano (he had a retrospective at IFFR in 2018) you step straight into the shady world of corrupt police officers in Buenos Aires. A very evil cop tries to clear up the mess he's made of his work and life now he knows he is incurably ill.

Sold territories:

Una banda de chicas

International premiere

Programme section: Scopitone

Director(s): Marilina Giménez

Prod. Countries: Argentina

Prod. Year: 2018

Length: 83

Genre: Creative Documentary

Contact: María Vera

Email: vera@kinorebelde.com

Phone: +351910551325

Logline: A direct, unpolished portrait of the alternative music scene in Buenos Aires, seen from a strictly female perspective. Former musician Marilina Giménez introduces a colourful series of local acts by women who control their own look and sound – and are not afraid to challenge the prevailing norms.

Length: 96

Genre: Fiction

Company: Compañía de Cine

Contact: Paulina Portela

Email: paulina@companiadecine.com

Phone: 54911 34002718

Logline: After their affair ends, Ariel continues to explore his sexuality, while the priest Omar wrestles with his erotic urges in ecclesiastical circles. Argentine filmmaker José Celestino

Campusano interweaves their stories to provide an unsentimental picture of power, abuse and (homo)sexuality within richer and poorer circles in Argentina.

Soy tóxico

European premiere

Programme section: Laboratory of Unseen Beauty

Director(s): Daniel de la Vega, Pablo Parés

Prod. Countries: Argentina

Prod. Year: 2018

Length: 81

Genre: Fiction

Company: Del Toro Films

Contact: Nestor Sanchez Sotelo

Email: nssotelo@gmail.com

Phone: +54 11 45031931

Logline: Following the success of their feature debut Jennifer's Shadow (2004), Parés & De la Vega worked for a US company on a post-mega-disaster wasteland zombie film that was never made: but the screenplay was turned into a (still unfinished) comic – which they then adapted for this low-budget horror delight!

Sold territories: All available

Rojo

Programme section: Limelight

Director(s): Benjamín Naishtat

Prod. Countries: Argentina, Brazil, France, Netherlands, Germany

Prod. Year: 2018

Length: 109

Genre: Fiction

Company: Luxbox Films

Contact: Hedi Zardi

Email: hedi@luxboxfilms.com

Phone: + 33 6 64 46 10 11

Logline: Atmospheric crime drama set in a provincial town dissects in an almost darkly comical way the mindset of Argentinians in 1975, the year before Jorge Videla's military coup and the four subsequent juntas. Naishtat's third feature film adds to his chronicle of recent Argentinian history, ruled by fear and aggression.

Introduzione all'oscuro

Programme section: Bright Future Main

Programme

Director(s): Gastón Solnicki

Prod. Countries: Argentina, Austria

Prod. Year: 2018

Length: 71

Genre: Fiction

Company: Rei Cine SRL

Contact: Eugenio Fernández Abril

Email: efa@reicine.com.ar

Phone: +54 9 11 3797 4290

Logline: Mourning the sudden death of Viennale festival director Hans Hurch, Argentinian filmmaker Solnicki (Papirosen, Kékszakkállú) decided to make a film of his good and at times eccentric friend. The result is a loving, idiosyncratic tour of Hurch's cosmopolitan Vienna and, naturally, an ode to culture.

Genre: Fiction

Company: The Match Factory

Contact: Thania Dimitrakopoulou

Email:

thania.dimitrakopoulou@matchfactory.de

Phone: +49 30443190555

Logline: Who's responsible for a woman's brutal decapitation in the Andes? Local policeman Cruz is put on the case, turning into an Argentine Dale Cooper in this Lynchian monster film. A beautifully shot nightmare in which the lugubrious murder mystery becomes increasingly surrealistic.

Sold territories: Argentina, Chile, France, Ukraine, Paraguay, Hong Kong, Japan, North America, South East Asia

Joel

European premiere

Programme section: Big Screen Competition

Director(s): Carlos Sorín

Prod. Countries: Argentina

Prod. Year: 2018

Length: 100

Genre: Fiction

Company: Latido Films

Contact: Juan Torres

Email: juan@latidofilms.com

Phone: +34 91 5488877

Logline: Joel Noguera wins our hearts playing a nine-year-old adopted boy, but the inhabitants of a small town in Patagonia are less taken with him. Subtle drama about adoption and living together. Veteran filmmaker Carlos Sorin (Historias minimas) makes unease, good intentions and the complex balance between these palpable in every scene.

Length: 313

Genre: Fiction

Company: El Pampero Cine

Contact: Laura Citarella

Email: lauracitarella@elpamperocine.com.ar

Phone: +54.11.48154366

Logline: Some time in the 1980s, in the Argentine pampas, four female spies have to successfully complete 'Operation Hercules'. In the morning, a life-and-death confrontation awaits them – but until then we crisscross the world, taking in tangents and prequels. A narrative masterpiece.

Email: lauracitarella@elpamperocine.com.ar

Phone: +54.11.48154366

Logline: It starts with a brilliant exercise in self-parodying metafiction and evolves into something completely different. Followed by a remake of Jean Renoir's Partie de campagne and the only story that starts in the middle and has an ending: the 19th-century diary of a woman kidnapped for years by Indians. An addictive viewing experience.

Length: 65

Genre: Creative Documentary

Company: Harald House

Contact: Kristian van der Heyden

Email: office@haraldhouse.com

Phone: +32485127750

Logline: Punk is not dead in Indonesia. There is more at stake than ever. The young street punks in this film are shunned by society and risk incarceration for their appearance. With the Dayak people as their example, they fight for their homeland and against corruption and hypocrisy.

Length: 63

Genre: Creative Documentary

Company: Iota Production

Contact: Lise Lamouche

Email: lise@iotaproduction.com

Phone: +32 2 344 65 31

Logline: Even if you have no affinity with the work of Theo Angelopoulos, who died in 2012, this fictional documentary will not leave you unmoved. Lélou paints a portrait of the master filmmaker by contemporizing his recurring themes, such as migration and exile, from his final, uncompleted film to today's Greece.

Logline: The melancholy girl roams like a tourist through her own life; 14 chapters show her attempts to bond with the people around her. The result: an equally fairy-tale and absurd world – from aerobics with babies to rides on a unicorn, nothing is too crazy in this post-modern comedy.

Logline: The romantic comedy colours how we think about love and relationships. But why is this genre so conservative? Sankey uses many film clips to analyse the unrealistic picture the genre sketches of male-female relationships with white, heterosexual, middle-class characters. Yet the romcom continues to move us: Why is this so?
